"Thoy who never go to the 'loly Land in their walks, as they pretend, are indeed mere idlers and vagabonds; but they who do go there are sauntorers in the good sense, such as I mean."—II. D. Thoreau.

Just over the borders of daily life.
The e's a Holy Land of light and soug,
Wh re music, and beauty, and joy are rife,
And the soul, at leisure, may flee from strife,
And obliviou drink of wrong.

And often I seek this Holy Land—
I saunter along at mine own sweet case,
When skies are blue and the breeze is bland,
Fill its golden and lvory gates expand,
And its marvels the "mind's eye" sees.

in . More fair than aught in this world of ours, alore fair than aught in this world of ours, All things there glisten, and glimms
A spiritual leme lives on the flowers,
And rain ow colors adorn the bowers
Whereunder worn pilgrims dream.

VII.

The poet for song these finds new themes,
Where an Eden-light unextinguished lies;
Lotus he cats, and he drinks of streams
From the liver of Life, and his golden dreams
Are of happier sarths and skies. VIII.

The weary and sad may Nepenthe quair, And half the darkness of grief forget as space, and at its grim plautoms laugh, Where's never a grave nor an opitsph To awake in the soul regret.

Yet few there are in this world's bot waste Who, sauntering, seek this region bright, Though it be not far; but, with feverous he The most other raths pursue, nor taste The springs of its deep delight.

CHICKENS HATCHED FROM EOGS TWELVE HUNDED YEARS OLD.—A Paris correspondent of the Nation states that the guests of the Abbo Denia, cursts of the Pari-h of St. Elio, in the Faubourg St. Antoine, d.ned a few days ago on fowls whose immediate ancestors figured, he says, on the table of the great Frankish King Dagobert. When the Abbo Denis laid the first stone of the church and presbytery he had built by his own exertions, on the site of the old chateau and gardens of Dagobort, a hon's next full of ergs was discovered beneath the ruins of the antein building. These eggs, more than twelve hundred years old, were about to be thrown away by the laborors, when the Abbo, remembering that wheat has been grown from grain found in Egypt in mummies dating back from the time of the Pharacha, bethought himself that possibly there might still be life in those eggs. A savant of the mistitute—coesuited at once in reference to these precious relics of an age when there was nay yet no Frunce to detest "Perficiens Alboir" or to be jealous of Prussia and needle gunns—salvised their being forthwith confided to a hen of approved success in the maternal capacity. This advice having been acted upon, the good Cure and his friends had the delight of witnessing, twenty-one days atterwards, the hatching of a fine brood of chickens, the direct progeny of the denizes of King Dagobert's barn yard. The fowls thus obtained have been carefully kept from any meanliance with their congeners of less ancient blood; and the Abbe has now a yard so well replonished with "King Dagobert's barn yard. A TRAVELLER, writing to the Cincinnati Gazette

1 ya: "All Switzerland is divided into four parts

-where a man can go, where a mule can go, where a carriage or a diligence can go, and where a locomotive or steamboat can go. If Solowhere a locomotive or steamboat can go. If Solo-mon had lived among the High Alps he would hardly have said, "A man bath no pre-sminence above the beast," for there is a deal of cli left after the brute has done his best. It is hardly worth attempting, however. The ascent of the snow peaks is agreed by all to be vanity and a labor. The mountains that afford the fines views belong to the second named class, and have bridle paths up their sides."

NEW ORLEANS, September 21.—COTTON—The depreason noticed in yesterday's report culminated to-day in an almost entire suspension of business. Factors of fared their samples quite freely and were evidently anzious to sall, and not wholly unwilling to accept reduced rates, but the inducement failed to develop any movement, ince most of the pauding orders are predicated on such low rates that buyers deened it utterly useless to attempt their execution. Hence the day's transactions was timited, in fact, too limited to admit of particulariting. Under the circumstances, we cannot say snything positive as to prices, although it may incidentally, be added that the tendency was to increased weakness.

Loss of British Scur. Paradida.—The Wilmington (N C) Post of yesterday has the following: Captain H L Hall, of the sicumship James A Garey, which arrived here yesterday from Baltimore, reports that at 12.30 P M, rin Mculay the 72d linel, he saw a schooner, which he afterwards secertained to be the Paradigm, Captain John Dunlap, from Baltish bound to Charleston, with a carge of salt, ashere on Cape Lookout Shosis. The Paradigm struck on the night of the 22d, and when first seen from the Garey had up a signal of distrose. Captain Hall kept off for, hr, but finding it impossible to reach her on the East side, hauled off and cam-bround on the West side, and then succeeded in boarding her. As the ressul was full of water with only three feet under her, it was considered as useless to attempt to get her clear, and the Captain and crow were taken on beard the Garey and brought to Wilmington. The vessel and cargo will prove a total Joss.

GENERAL REMARKS. SPARTANBURG FEMALE COLLEGE.

Spartanburg Female College, under the patronage of the South Carolina Conference, was opened for the admission of pupils on the 25th August, 1855. The site of the College Buildings is one of the most pleasant and desirable locations that could have been selected. The Campus encloses fifteen acres of Rev. J. A. PORTER, Georgetown.

Major JOHN A. LEE, Spartanburg.
Rev. M. BROWN, Columbia.
